

CIPA Lumber Co. Ltd.
Sayward Dryland Sort Manager
Campbell River, B.C.

Duties:

Responsible for managing all sort activities: booming, sorting, scaling, and machine shop.

Meet safety standards, internal and external.

Maintain SAFE certification.

Meet CIPA and Mosaic environmental standards.

Supervise crew of 8-12 employees.

Deal with the union and the collective agreement.

Responsible for training crew in safety, environment, and operating procedures.

Maintain and improve quality, production, and costs.

Communicate with customers.

Set and negotiate rates with customers and contractors.

Meet scale site authorization conditions.

Communicate with administration and log supply.

This position requires phone calls on weekends and evenings with customers and organizing crew complement.

Weekend and evening work may be required as needed.

To Apply: send your personal resume and cover letter to: PKennell@cipalumber.com