

The KDL Group is currently seeking an individual for the position of

Logging Supervisor

To be based in Fort St. James, British Columbia

www.fortstjames.ca

Who you are:

You are an experienced professional in the logging/forestry business with the proven ability to lead and motivate a team. You have excellent problem solving and project management skills that enhance your good written and oral communication skills. These communication skills are supported by iPad, laptop, and smart phone technology.

You have a strong work ethic and are willing to work in a remote/camp environment. If you will be able to register within two years as, or are currently registered as an RPF/RFT this will be considered an asset but will not be an exclusionary criterion.

Your responsibilities will include:

You will deliver an annual 250,000m³ Stump-to-Dump program while ensuring customer requirements are met with regard to safety, quality control, and environmental oversight. You will ensure that operations are conducted to KDL standards and that production targets are met. You will train, schedule, and motivate employees, including disciplining where required.

As a Supervisor you will facilitate safety, crew, and production meetings and contribute to supervision meetings. You will also be responsible for equipment and human resource allocation and dispatch including assisting with the coordination of daily hauling dispatch with the Trucking Manager.

Who we are:

The KDL Group is a premier provider of complete forest resource services. In British Columbia, we have operations in Fort St. James, Mackenzie, and Courtenay. We are looking to expand our team at our Fort St. James Division and we are currently seeking a highly motivated professional who is interested in pursuing a full-time, long-term career in Logging Operations. You will join an exciting team at an exciting time in the Forest Industry.

We offer a comprehensive compensation package that includes a competitive salary, excellent benefits, and an outstanding pension plan.

If you are interested in applying for this opportunity, please send your resume to admin@kdlgroup.net. This posting will remain open until filled. We thank all candidates for their interest; however, only those short listed will be contacted. We only consider candidates approved to work in Canada.
