

General Manager of Operations Fort St. James

The KDL Group is an integrated resource development and forest management firm with over 200 employees province-wide, with core operations in the BC Central Interior and Vancouver Island. Since inception, the KDL Group has remained family owned, with a strong commitment of service and value to our customers, clients, and partners.

KDL Group is an operational harvesting, road building, and timber transportation company. We currently harvest and deliver 1.5 million cubic meters +/- in the Central Interior. As well, we have a complete woodlands and tenure management capacity that currently completes comprehensive forestry services on a range of tenures in the order of 1.6 million meters annually. Our woodlands group specializes in timber tenure management, log marketing, and logistics.

Position Overview and Requirements:

KDL Group is pleased to be hiring for the position of General Manager of Fort St. James operations. This is a Senior Management position, reporting directly to the Vice-President of Operations. The General Manager is responsible for establishing and maintaining all operational aspects of the Fort St. James division, including accountability for divisional safety, profitability and growth, as well as the delivery of services that meet or exceed customer expectations.

This position has 2 Operations Managers and a Log Hauling Manager reporting to them, representing approximately 80 employees.

The Fort St. James division currently conducts harvesting, road construction, and transportation associated with approximately 1 million cubic meter of timber for a range of customers.

Successful candidates will have 10 or more years supervisory or management experience in the Forest Industry, with a strong knowledge of operational logging and forestry business process. An MBA or RPF designation will be considered an asset; however, not required. A combination of education and experience will also be considered. The General Manager of Fort St. James is expected to communicate effectively with staff and customers, solve problems, manage complexity, and deliver results in a rigorous work environment.
