

Forestry Consulting

---

Forestry Technician

|                |                                      |
|----------------|--------------------------------------|
| Start Date:    | April 23, 2018                       |
| Duration:      | Full-Time                            |
| Job Scope:     | Harvest Block Boundary & Road Layout |
| Location:      | Dryden                               |
| Remuneration:  | Performance Based                    |
| Working Hours: | Flexible 5 Days per week             |
| Experience:    | Considered an asset                  |

Qualifications

- Forestry Degree or Diploma
- High level of fitness to endure walking 4-8km per day, averaging 20km per week, through dense bush over rugged terrain in severe environmental conditions year round, while demarcating block boundary and road line within FMP, AWS prescriptions.
- Strong organizational skill, fortitude and ability to work independently in unsupervised remote settings are unconditionally prerequisite for safely optimizing services.
- Experience navigating via map, compass and Garmin GPS,
- Ability to prepare maps with GPS/GIS software and main Microsoft Excel work logs
- Valid class G driver's license and willingness to supply drivers abstract.
- Current firearms PAL is recommended for defense against aggressive wildlife.
- Proven track record of work related achievements.

This is an excellent paying position that will lead to roles of increasing responsibility and leadership.

We would like to thank all applicants in advance for their interest, as only those selected for an interview will be contacted.

Please apply by forwarding your resume, cover letter and three work references, in confidence, by:

February 28, 5:00pm to:

toddhurdon@shaw.ca