

GENERAL MANAGER

KDL Resource Management

KDL Resource Management, a division of Meraki Resources, provides comprehensive, professional, and environmentally sustainable resource services. They specialize in comprehensive tenure and forest management, working with their partners to develop opportunities, manage tenures and market forest products. Currently the company operates three professional forestry divisions in the British Columbia Interior with plans for growth.

The General Manager will manage KDL Resource Management in maintaining quality relationships with clients, generating new business, increasing productivity, improving service, ensuring sustainability and meeting business objectives. A detailed "Position Description" together with "Required Knowledge, Skills and Abilities" is available upon request.

For this role, Meraki Resources is seeking a manager with an exceptional entrepreneurial spirit; sound business acumen – able to identify and realize opportunities; demonstrated success in shaping organizational culture; and a passion for the business that motivates employees and partners alike.

The General Manager position is currently centered in Prince George but this may change as divisional growth is realized.
