

LUMBER Q.C. SUPERVISOR – VANCOUVER ISLAND

This highly diversified company manufactures lumber, plywood and value-added wood products at plants on Vancouver Island and in the B.C. Interior; manages a large sales group that markets forest products worldwide; and has a growing trucking business.

Centurion Lumber has two lumber manufacturing facilities at Chemainus, B.C. on Vancouver Island providing exceptional quality products from both Coastal and Interior species (W.R. Cedar, Douglas Fir, Hem-Fir and SPF). An immediate opportunity is available for an experienced Quality Control Supervisor who will also handle some shipping and production supervisory duties. Candidates should have a Coastal Species Grading ticket and a history in coastal sawmilling and/or lumber reman supervision.

Between Victoria and Nanaimo, this area is considered one of Canada's best lifestyle locations with residence at sea-side locations like Ladysmith, Duncan and Chemainus.

Competitive remuneration, a full benefit program and, if applicable, relocation assistance should be expected.
