

Area Planner Position

Lemare is a privately-owned timber harvesting, natural resource management and civil construction services company based in Port McNeill, BC, with various operations on Vancouver Island, the Great Bear Rainforest, and Northern BC. Lemare is currently seeking an Area Planner to join our team of highly skilled resource professionals. This position is based out of our Port McNeill, BC office.

Reporting to the Planning Manager, the Area Planner will be responsible for planning and oversight of engineering and silviculture activities for up to 500,000m³ of annual cut on Vancouver Island and The Great Bear Rainforest.

Responsibilities:

- Coordination, scheduling, and quality control of field crews
- Contractor management
- Cutting permit, road permit, and various other permit preparation
- Total chance planning
- Meeting timeline and budget targets
- Liaise with stakeholder/clients/partners on project specific matters
- Various other field and office duties

Qualifications and Competencies:

- Minimum 5 years coastal industry experience
- Registered as RPF or RFT with the ABCFP
- Commitment to safety and the environment
- Experience with coastal forest engineering, harvest systems and timber quality
- Understanding of forest legislation and policy in BC
- Working knowledge of the Coast Appraisal System
- Strong organization and communication skills, self motivated, ability to work with minimal supervision, physically fit

Lemare has a strong workplace culture and support for continuous on the job education. The right candidate will have incredible opportunity for career progression within the company.

Please apply with resume and cover letter with subject header "Area Planner Position" addressed to reception@lemare.ca

We thank all interested candidates, however only those short-listed for interview will be contacted.

For more information about the Lemare group of companies, please visit our website: Lemare.ca