

Forest Operations Technologist

VERSATILITY. EXPERTISE.

With these two words, Vertex makes the promise that we will always be versatile in developing solutions to our clients' unique needs and that we will always demonstrate expertise in our designated fields.

Since 1962, Vertex has been a leading North American provider of environmental services. With over 60 years of expertise, Vertex helps clients achieve their development goals through our versatile suite of services. From the initial site selection, consultation and regulatory approval, through the construction, operation and maintenance phases, to conclusion and environmental cleanup, Vertex offers a diverse range of services throughout the life cycle of our clients' projects.

OVERVIEW

Vertex is currently accepting applications for up to (6) full-time permanent and/or seasonal Forest Operations Technologists. This position will be responsible for forest operational & planning field work throughout Central and Northern Alberta. The successful candidate will demonstrate professionalism, possess a strong work ethic and a desire to contribute to the company's overall success.

CANDIDATE QUALIFICATIONS

- 0 - 3 years' experience required
- Professional Designation in Alberta or Eligibility as a RPFT is preferred
- Forest operations and planning experience along with proven skills in forest measurements, eco-typing, harvest layout, stream and waterbody classification and GIS Arc Maps would be considered an asset
- Familiarity with Public Lands Act, Water Act, Wildlife Act, GoA and AER applications is preferred
- Field experience in wildlife sweeps, surveys, watercourse, and wetland assessments is preferred but not required
- Basic computer knowledge and skilled in Microsoft Office and ARC GIS Online
- Willingness to work daily in remote wilderness locations only accessible by ATV/Snowmobile
- Possess a strong attention to detail for quality of work, deliverables along with excellent communication and interpersonal skills

RESPONSIBILITIES

- GPS field data capture and survey
- GIS mapping capabilities and proficiency
- Water course classification, 3rd party crossing identification
- Assessing hazard trees / patrolling utility lines in remote locations
- Technical writing, regulatory applications, report preparation and 3rd party notification requirement identification

Forest Operations Technologist

- Expect field shifts of up to 10 days in length

LOCATION

- Sherwood Park (Office)
- Northern and Central Alberta (Field)
- Flexible remote work ability

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- Compensation is commensurate with education and experience
- A comprehensive benefit package is provided

APPLY NOW

With a track record of success, Vertex provides a fast-paced environment where people thrive. We recognize that each member brings a valuable skill set to the Vertex team and we make health, safety and community well-being a priority by supporting numerous endeavors at each of our locations across North America.

At Vertex, we value teamwork through collaboration and provide support across the entire organization. If you think you have what it takes to play for the Vertex team, please apply. To apply directly, please send your resume directly to jhancheruk@vertex.ca

We would like to thank all applicants for their interest in this position, however only those selected for interviews will be contacted