

OPERATIONS SUPERVISOR

project diversity, career advancement, flexibility exceptional pay for exceptional candidates

THE JOB

The Operations Supervisor will set up, coordinate, supervise and manage forest operations from project inception to completion; mentor staff; and build client capacity.

This exciting career opportunity is based in beautiful Terrace, BC, a fun and family-oriented community, with many local amenities and access to an abundance of outdoor activities including incredible fishing, skiing, snowmobiling, biking and hiking.

ABOUT WESTLAND

Westland Resources works throughout Northwest BC on a diversity of natural resource management projects, including the Energy, Forestry and Infrastructure fields. For two decades our services have covered the spectrum from strategic advice through assessment, development and permitting, and on to operational implementation, monitoring, problem-solving, and post-project supervision. Our clients include First Nations, energy and utility companies, forest licensees, infrastructure developers and all levels of government.

EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

You have a well-rounded background in forest operations and supervision of forestry-related projects, with at least 5 years experience.

Skills we are looking for:

- Logging and road construction supervision
- Timber and log quality assessments, valuation and reporting
- Project management (planning, budgeting, ground-level implementation, supervision and monitoring)
- Contract negotiation and implementation
- Liaising and negotiating with contractors, resource agencies, stakeholders and First Nations
- Safety and environmental program planning and development

Assets would include:

- Registered (or eligible to register) with Forest Professionals BC, or certification as a Project Management Professional
- Working knowledge of BC's natural resource regulatory environment and operational planning processes

The successful applicant will also be:

- A team-oriented self-starter looking for diversity and career growth
- A quick, adaptive learner that enjoys the woods and also comfortable working with Microsoft Office™
- Open and positive with clients and government agencies

WHAT WE OFFER

Westland offers a competitive salary, comprehensive benefits package (at the time of hire), profit sharing opportunities, pension allowance, coverage of professional dues, allowances for personal equipment and moving, work schedule flexibility (to promote work / life balance), professional development and training opportunities and a minimum signing bonus of $1500 (based on experience and completion of a 90-day probationary period).

Westland strives to create an upbeat, fun, and respectful workplace with a focus on safety, teamwork, and communication. We value the diversity of our team and welcome applicants from all walks of life. If you'd like to be part of our team, please email your resumé and cover letter with a summary of qualifications and experience to WLR@westlandresources.ca.

We thank all persons who apply; however, only those selected for an interview will be contacted.
